no way violated the law. It became known to night that E. Loroy Humes, special agent of the department of justice had been questioning Grunau and other railroad men and had presented a mass of documentary evidence to the jury.

It was as a result of this evidence according to the reports of the indict-ments, that the true bills, charging violation of the Lever act were voted.

Mr. Humes to-night declined to comment on the "Leak" saying it was out of his field, but said he understood the jury would make a report on indictments tomorrow.
